Florence, June 2. N. S. The Grand Duke and all the Court are gone into Mourning, on account of the Death of the late Emperor. The Hereditary Prince of Tuſcany's Diſtemper is ſo far abated, that we begin to entertain ſome hopes of his Recovery. We have received Advices from Bologna, importing, that ſome Conteſts between the Dukes of Parma and Modena, on account of a Fief at the Mouth of the River Lenza, to which both have laid their Claims, have produced Acts of Hoſtility between them, and the Militia on both ſides have come to an Engagement, in which about ſix hundred Men were killed. It is ſaid the Modeneſe were the Aggreſſors, and worſted the oppoſite Party, but that the Duke of Parma has thereupon declar'd open War againſt his Competitor.

Milan, June 2. N. S. The Marquis de Mole is arrived here from Barcelona; from whence they write, that the News of the late Accommodation with the Malecontents was received there with extream Satisfaction; and that ſince the Death of the Emperor, the Catalans have given his Catholick Majeſty freſh Aſſurances of their Zeal and Fidelity. The Dutcheſs of Anjou's Departure for Corella is fix'd for the 7th Inſtant, and the Court at Saragoſſa hope the Change of Air will contribute to the Recovery of that Princeſs's Health. The Duke of Anjou propoſeth to accompany her thither, and then to put himſelf at the Head of his Army, which is to March ſoon after towards Barcelona, in order to open the Campaign. Twenty four Pieces of Cannon have been lately conducted to Tortoſa, where they are laying up Stores of Ammunition and Proviſions, and continue to give out, that their Intentions are to lay Siege to Tarragona; but it is ſtill thought they will be in no Condition to undertake ſo conſiderable an Enterprize. The Pruſſian Troops that have been quartered this Winter in the Modeneſe, and the Parmeſan, have received ſome Interruptions in their March from the overflowings of the Rivers, occaſioned by the ſudden falls of the Waters from the Mountains. However they are already arrived in the Territories of Pavia, and are continuing their March towards Piemont, where all the neceſſary meaſures are taken for opening the Campaign, the Army being to be formed about the 15th Inſtant. The Duke of Berwick arrived at Grenoble the 31ſt of the laſt Month, and has begun to Poſt his Troops in the Paſſes of the Mountains, for the better Security of thoſe Places during the Campaign.

Venice, June 6. N. S. The Prince de Santo-Buono having had his Audience of Leave, and received the uſual Preſent, is removing with all his Family to Bologna, where he propoſeth to leave his Princeſs, and will go from thence to the Duke of Anjou's Court at Saragoſſa, in order to receive that Prince's Commands, before he proceeds to take upon him the Government of Sicily. Our Letters from Conſtantinople, dated the 24th of April, adviſe, that the Turks give out that they ſhall be in a Condition to act againſt the Muſcovites on the Black Sea this Summer, and that they are for that purpoſe forming a Train of Artillery, and making other warlike Preparations with great Diligence. They write from Naples, that the Viceroy had cauſed an Ordonnance to be Publiſh'd, enjoining all the Subjects of France under ſevere Penalties to depart that Kingdom by a time preſcribed, as likewiſe all the Women, whoſe Sons or Husbands are in the Duke of Anjou's Service in Spain or elſewhere. They continue the Offices in all the Churches in that City upon the account of the late Emperor's Death, and the Viceroy has received the Compliments of Condolance in the Name of the Magiſtracy and Populace on that Occaſion.

Berlin, June 13. N. S. Laſt Thurſday his Excellency Mr. Whitworth, the Queen of Great Britain's Ambaſſador-Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Czar of Muſcovy, went from hence for Dreſden. Count Golloſkin has received Letters by Expreſs from Jawarrow, dated the 8th of May, O. S. importing, that his Czariſh Majeſty was waiting for the Arrival of the King of Poland, and that the Army of the Muſcovites was to be formed by the end of that Month at Braclow, a Town in Podolia, about ſix Days March from Bender: In the mean time it is aſſured, that the Turks cannot be ready before the beginning of July. Count Golloſkin's elder Brother arrived here on Tueſday laſt, and on Thurſday they both ſat out for Wolfenbuttel, where the Elder has Orders to ſtay with the Hereditary Prince of Muſcovy, and the Youngeſt is to continue his Journey to the Pruſſian Court now in Holland. The Swediſh Troops in Pomerania are not yet drawn together; and we are told that they will not be able to March for want of Mony.

Francfort, June 14. N. S. The Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel is come to the Baths of Slangenbach, under a Guard of his Horſe Grenadiers and two Companies of Foot, which are to be quarter'd there during the Landgrave's Reſidence at that Place. The 9th Inſtant part of the Enemy's Army, conſiſting of twelve Regiments of Horſe and ſome Foot, paſſed the Rhine at Fort Keyl, as did likewiſe ſix other Regiments of Horſe at Selingen, and encamped near Wildſtadt; whereupon the Duke of Wirtemberg march'd with ſome Horſe, and two thouſand Foot, in order to engage them; but finding 'em advantageouſly poſted, he foraged in ſight of their Camp, and a Body of their Horſe having been ſent out to get Intelligence, were intercepted and entirely defeated by a Party of the Germans, who took about ſixty Priſoners, and one hundred of their Horſes.

The Commiſſioners appointed by Her Majeſty for governing and managing the Duties on Hides, &c. have thought it convenient to give Notice,
